GLOSSARY

FOR A SHARED LIFE OF ABUNDANCE

ABUNDANCE (WITHIN THE GUIDELINES OF NATURAL LAW)

ABUNDANCE CAN ONLY BE ACHIEVED WITHIN THE GUIDELINES OF NATURAL LAW AND UNIVERSAL LAWS.

TRUE ABUNDANCE CAN ONLY BE FULLY ATTAINED IN A GENUINE RELATIONSHIP WITH NATURE AND HUMANS.

OUR VARIOUS FAMILY LEVELS, FROM BIRTH TO ADULTHOOD, MUST BE WHERE WE LEARN ABOUT HUMAN RELATIONSHIPS.

LOVE, WHICH IS THE ESSENTIAL ELEMENT OF A STABLE FAMILY, MUST BE GIVEN AND SHARED AT EVERY LEVEL OF WHAT IS CONSIDERED A FAMILY.

WE ARE A SINGLE HUMAN FAMILY UNDER THE CREATOR AND SOURCE.

THEREFORE, TO ACHIEVE A LIFE OF ABUNDANCE, WE MUST LEARN, AND LIVE UNDER THE NATURAL LAW GUIDELINES, AND PRACTICE LOVE:

- LOVE FOR OURSELVES
- LOVE FOR EVERY LEVEL OF WHAT IS CONSIDERED A FAMILY
- LOVE FOR NATURE

good is to be done

(BE OF SERVICE TO YOURSELF, EMBRACE YOUR AUTHENTIC SELF, AND GENERATE POSITIVE ENERGY)

MEET YOUR ESSENTIAL NEEDS

EMBRACE YOUR FEELING OF ABUNDANCE, EXPAND
YOUR LOVE, AND GRATITUDE.

BE IN OVERFLOW OF POSITIVE ENERGY.

ESSENTIAL NEED no 1: PHYSIOLOGICAL essential life needs; air, water, food, shelter, sleep, etc.

ESSENTIAL NEED no 2: SAFETY personal security, resources, health, employment, etc.

ESSENTIAL NEED no 3: LOVE AND BELONGING intimacy, family, friendship, sense of connection, etc.

ESSENTIAL NEED no 4: ESTEEM

acceptance, responsibility, achievements, respect, etc.

ESSENTIAL NEED no 5: SELF- ACTUALIZATION personal growth, fulfilment, be all you can be, etc.

OUR VISION: A SHARED LIFE OF ABUNDANCE

IMAGINE...

WHAT IS YOUR DEFINITION OF AN ABUNDANT LIFE?

Knowing that everything that I am and everything I will bring to the day will be purposeful, well-received, and reciprocated.

Knowing that I bring love, devotion, patience, care, expertise, and wisdom into someone's life.

Knowing that my interactions are fueled by Love and received and reciprocated with Love. Knowing that my financial obligations are not longer a cause of stress, and I finish my days with Gratitude in my heart.

- Sacha, Québec, Canada

Abundance is being able to have amazing experiences as a family.

Enjoying life together, laughing and talking.

Experiencing the joy from our hearts as we spend time together.

Abundance together would also mean being able to share whatever extra time and finances we have with others, like our extended family, our neighbors, and our community.

- Marisol, Texas, USA

Having time and space for self-care and more time to develop unique relationships with my children.

Having an abundance of support in the form solid role models.

I learn more than enough to care for myself and my children.

My children and I live in a supportive community and never feel that we are living in lack of support, friendships, and resources.

- Kareen, Québec, Canada

A life where no one lacks what they need, Life is simple. Health is available to all. Peace reigns everywhere on our beautiful Planet. Education is completely reinvented and adapted.

Benevolence is honored in all relationships. Everyone gives with one hand and receives with another hand. We are all committed to being guardians of the Earth. Fear finally gives way to omnipresent Love.

Abundance of Health, Peace, Education, Love, and respect for Mother Earth.

- Daniel, Québec, Canada

OUR VISION: A SHARED LIFE OF ABUNDANCE

IMAGINE...

WHAT IS YOUR DEFINITION OF AN ABUNDANT LIFE?

Abundance is having everything you truly really need within your local bubble with a shared respect for one another to keep those needs being met and fairly.

The gelling of communities to work within cooperative parameters and partnerships creates a level of abundance that is sensitive to local eco-systems.

This to me is a foundational vision of abundance at the grassroots level.

- Stacy, British Columbia, Canada

Waking up next to the one I love. Jumping out of bed feeling refreshed and poised for a day built on a deep sense of purpose.

Building a future for myself, my family, my community, and the world. This future would be built around natural organic laws, technology, and systems that support the base root of all life through the connection to Source energy, and the transmission of that energy outward from my heart into the world.

- Jared, Arizona, USA

Living and working in a place surrounded by nature, with green spaces everywhere and water bodies not too far. Living in a bioconstruction house with organic designs for energy and harmony flow.

Working on my passion which is to share my love and closeness with Nature and how it keeps us balanced and healthy at the physical and emotional level.

Ending my workdays early to spend time with my loved ones for cooking and baking. Then ending my days with meditation and communication with Source.

- Abril, Cancún, Mexico

A life of abundance is slow living. Having time for myself and sharing time and meals with family and friends!

Creating small sharing community groups and once a month, having a fun family activity.

This is abundance for me.

- Line, Québec, Canada

OUR VISION: A SHARED LIFE OF ABUNDANCE

IMAGINE...

WHAT IS YOUR DEFINITION OF AN ABUNDANT LIFE?

A community where everyone has enough of everything for themselves and their families. Where everyone shares in providing the services needed, whether participating in the planting and harvesting of all agricultural foods in the land or in greenhouses.

A community where children are nurtured into young adulthood. Where respect is understood. Where there is an understanding, belief, and practice to “take what is needed and leave the rest.” A community where when a neighbor is hurting, others will be there with an ear to listen, a shoulder to lean on, a hand to help and give the time to help heal.

A community where everyone cares enough to form teams of volunteers, whether to be available for childcare, handyman jobs, transportation, cooking meals when mom and/or dad is under the weather.

In short, a community of service and love.

- Jeanne Anne, New York, USA

A life living in Harmony,
Peace, Freedom, and Happiness.

Where all people live in support of each other and in complimentary to one another, having all they need, to do what they need, for when the need to do it.

Centring on the original nature of True Love which was instilled in humanity by the Creator.

- Francis, Rwanda, Africa

OUR MISSION: THE ROAD TO ABUNDANCE

...THEN GIVE THE REST

GIVE YOUR OVERFLOW OF ABUNDANCE, OF GRATITUDE, AND OF LOVE

(BE OF SERVICE TO OTHERS, GIVE OF YOUR AUTHENTIC SELF, AND SHARE YOUR POSITIVE ENERGY)

GIVE YOUR OVERFLOW

THE MORE POSITIVE ENERGY
YOU CREATE, THE MORE POSITIVE ENERGY WILL BE SHARED.

CREATE AN ABUNDANCE OF POSITIVE ENERGY.

OVERFLOW OF LOVE no 1: TO SELF be kind to yourself, speak positively of yourself, be authentic, etc.

OVERFLOW OF LOVE no 2: TO LIVE-IN FAMILY (including PET) be present, communicate lovingly, listen patiently, serve, etc.

OVERFLOW OF LOVE no 3: TO EXTENDED FAMILY (including FRIENDS) communicate lovingly, listen patiently, give space, serve, etc.

OVERFLOW OF LOVE no 4: TO COMMUNITY and WORLD FAMILY be engaged, be proactive, be of service, etc.

OUR MISSION: THE ROAD TO ABUNDANCE

IMAGINE...

WHAT IS YOUR DEFINITION OF AN ABUNDANT LIFE OF SERVICE?

One human can effect massive change when motivations come from a loving heart.

A commitment to enrich the lives of one's community can bring more rewards in goodwill than any amount of money ever could.

This innate code of conduct makes living in peace and harmony, an easy inner-standing when building cooperative models for communities.

- Stacy, British Columbia, Canada

A world where Competition has given way to Collaboration. Each human is committed to serving simply according to their talents. There are enough resources for everyone. No more stress, no more seeing winners and losers.

Gratitude is present. Each company allows the human to Grow & Serve. Integrity is at the heart of all transactions. We live within our personal and collective sovereignty.

Abundance of Collaboration, of Talent, of Gratitude, of Integrity, and Sovereignty.

- Daniel, Québec, Canada

Workdays that are filled with tasks that I love to do, because I am good at them, and my talents and passions will be put to use in service to others.

I choose the workdays and work hours that suit my life preferences and life situation. Those workdays are filled with positive interactions, productivity, and creativity.

Once those workdays are completed, my Team and I get to celebrate in full Gratitude.

- Sacha, Québec, Canada

Knowing that all of my needs are met and that I am at the right time and the right place.

Being grateful for all things that are happening in my life.

Since everything happens for a reason, I need to be patient with myself until the time of manifestation then I welcome the outcome.

- ZeMikael, New York, USA

OUR MISSION: THE ROAD TO ABUNDANCE

IMAGINE...

WHAT IS YOUR DEFINITION OF AN ABUNDANT LIFE OF SERVICE?

Workdays that are filled with coordination efforts and discussions with various organized groups devoted to restoring our communities and the environment.

- Jared, Arizona, USA

During my work days, I contribute to projects I feel passionate about. Projects that serve my local or larger community.

Even while passionate about my work, I don't feel like I absolutely need to work more than 4-5 hours a day and 4 days a week at it.

I can prioritize disconnecting from my work even if it's the most amazing job in my lifetime, because we all need to regenerate and rejuvenate ourselves as often as possible.

- Kareen, Québec, Canada

Giving back to the local areas that help with the pet population, would be a wondrous joy.

South Texas needs donations for stray animals. Maybe more people who have the availability to care for a pet could care for pets within their homes.

My dream for my pets is to find some land where they can run free and exercise. City life comes with many ordinances and restrictions.

- Marisol, Texas, USA

Working only 3 hours at night to clean offices in consciousness so I can have the whole day to myself.

This free time would allow me to meet like-minded people and plan a variety of projects such as a "Community Café" where we will teach nonviolent communication and recycle coffee grounds in which profits and cooperative management will be by women for women and children.

- Line, Québec, Canada

OUR MISSION: THE ROAD TO ABUNDANCE

IMAGINE...

WHAT IS YOUR DEFINITION OF AN ABUNDANT LIFE OF SERVICE?

Abundance can be a state of mind where you know you have been blessed with all you need, you have.

It can also be a reality where every day is a struggle to provide for yourself and your family everything that is a necessity to live. To attain a state of abundance requires “equity” and “fundamental fairness.” Concepts not known to be the state of being in current society.

A life of abundance would be a life of even breathing. An ability to never know debt, but rather a knowing that one’s efforts will always provide all that is needed to live a long and productive life. Service to self and others is inherent in a life of abundance.

There is an environment where everyone can make the time to be of service to the family and community. Is it a matter of “service” or rather a state of “giving.”

Giving connotes abundance.

- Jeanne Anne, New York, USA

A life of abundance is A life of gratitude.

Having the ability to dedicate myself in serving of humanity
while fulfilling my life purpose, which will bring me joy, happiness and in full gratitude to the Creator.

Living in Love and harmony with all creation, following the natural laws of existence.
